

How a Bill Becomes a Law

After a bill passes out of one chamber it must pass out of the other chamber, in identical form, before it is presented to the Governor for a signature and becomes law

